Brett Horwitz joins TAB Bank

Ogden, UT – As TAB Bank continues to expand its non-transportation offerings, it is pleased to announce that Brett Horwitz has joined the Business Development team as Vice President and Business Development Officer in Southern California.

Most recently, Horwitz was Vice President of Paragon Resource Group, a Los Angeles based company focused on helping small and medium-sized businesses get access to working capital through a variety of Asset-Based Lending products and services. Before that, he was Channel Manager for an emerging technology company where he was responsible for building and supporting a network of strategic partner relationships and developing channels to market for the company's line of products. Horwitz has a bachelor's degree in Administrative Studies with a focus on Finance and Management from York University in Toronto, Canada.

Justin Gordon, National Director of Sales, said, "Brett's addition to the TAB team expands our footprint both geographically and in business opportunities. Brett has a strong reputation in Southern California for putting together asset-based transactions in almost every industry. Brett will be an important part of TAB's on going development of commercial lending outside of transportation."

TAB Bank has assets in excess of $460 million through a variety of financial products including: accounts receivable financing, asset-based loans, lines of credit, and equipment loans; TAB Bank provides working capital solutions to small- and medium-sized transportation and non-transportation businesses in all stages of their business life cycle no matter the economic climate.
